Pastor's Message

Dear Saints,

Lent is a time for traveling. I'm taking a week for travelling later in April to visit my sister-in-law in New Mexico. But for Lent I speak of a spiritual journey. Jesus invites us to follow Him. Jesus journeys to Jerusalem, to the Cross of Calvary. By faith we hear His call and join His journey. It has stops at the District of Discipline where we set aside self-interest supplanting it with sacrificial service. There will be a stop for dining on the delicacies of the Bread of Heaven. We may be way-laid in the Wilderness of Wanderings, but Jesus, who walked through the desert knows the way and will lead us through it.

On this journey Jesus lifts our eyes to see beyond ourselves and beyond our circumstances. We behold Him. His Word is a light unto our path, in fact, Jesus Himself is the way! We can turn our hearts to Him and trust Him whatever our circumstance in life.

Well, it's time to start walking. Jesus has places to go and people to meet. So do we!

Tim Cartwright, Pastor
Emmanuel Lutheran Church

Dear Carolyn,

I still miss you. I rest in the knowledge that you are beyond the encumbrances of this life and that one day I will see you again. I have a big hug and kiss waiting for you.

Love you, Tim

News from our Missionaries

Bob and Cheryl are currently in Colorado while Cheryl undergoes cancer treatment for breast cancer. Please keep them in your prayers. Included in their last newsletter was their Prayers and Praises.

Bob and Cheryl's Prayers and Praises

Praise for God's grace In providing Cheryl excellent medical care while she receives treatment for an aggressive form of breast cancer.

Pray for God's healing hand so the cancer will be successfully treated and her breathing problems resolved so that we may return to Sahel by next January.

Praise for our supporters. We have been blessed by their consistency, as well as by those who give when they can. Please also pray for a few additional supporters so that we will not have a monthly shortfall.

Pray our students and the teachers who are covering our classes. The third quarter is about to end and students must prepare for end of quarter tests. The teachers need to complete grading for report cards.

Pray for the Student Council who will be presenting the annual banquet for the staff and secondary students. Banquet is a formal affair taking the place of prom. The council has a lot to prepare, and we, as their faculty sponsors, will not be there for guidance and support.

Please keep Bob and Cheryl in your prayers at this difficult time in their life. We are honored not only to financially help support them, but to also lift them up in prayer.
